

THE PRESIDENT: Will the pages please distribute the amendment X and Y. X-ray and Yokum. These are respectfully numbers 12 and 13 to EB-1 and EB-2. You have already acted. I just wanted to complete your record.

Delegate Hopkins.

DELEGATE HOPKINS: Mr. President, I think most of us have Amendments 12 and 13 to EB-1 and -2.

THE PRESIDENT: Very well.

While we are distributing those, let me make an announcement or two which will keep you for a few moments, but do not leave your seats.

As soon as the pages have distributed, they will go get the commissions and bring them to you. I would much rather the pages hand you your commission, so that any further responsibility for breakage is yours, and we do not run the risk of having the commissions damaged.

Will the pages, as soon as they have concluded distributing the amendments, please get the commissions out of the Senate Chamber and present them to the delegates?

Let me take but a moment to tell you what I think is obvious. We have a four-day week scheduled next week that is going to be an exceedingly difficult one. I think we can conclude without unseemly haste what is on the schedule, but only upon condition that all delegates plan to be here in Annapolis all day Tuesday, Wednesday, perhaps Thursday, you certainly ought to plan for it, and certainly on Friday. Please do not make any plans or assumptions that you will not have an evening session or that you will have a late morning session, or that you will not be needed at any time during these days. I think we will have to operate on the assumption that all delegates are here, and that we can change the calendar on a moment's notice, change the hours, and move forward.

Next week is for all practical purposes the last week, and we can do the job if we stay to it in that way.

Delegate James.

DELEGATE JAMES: Mr. President, let me suggest we not make any plans for Saturday, either.

THE PRESIDENT: Thank you very much.

Delegate Wheatley.

DELEGATE WHEATLEY: Mr. Chairman, at what time do we plan to come in? At noon on Tuesday?

THE PRESIDENT: Plan to come in at noon for the session, but I would urge every delegate to be here Tuesday morning so that if you have any amendments or if there are any last-minute messages to get to you we can reach you. The session undoubtedly will run all day, all afternoon Tuesday, and Tuesday night. It will probably be all day Wednesday and Wednesday night.

Delegate Wheatley.

DELEGATE WHEATLEY: There will be a meeting of the General Provisions Committee on Tuesday at 11:30 A.M., in the General Provisions room.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Wheatley, may I inquire if that is with respect to the schedule of committee recommendations on transitional and legislative?

DELEGATE WHEATLEY: No, Mr. Chairman.

THE PRESIDENT: All right.

Are there any other announcements by committee chairmen?

Are there any announcements by any other delegates?

Delegate Clagett.

DELEGATE CLAGETT: Mr. President, there will be a meeting of the Local Government Committee on Tuesday at 11:00 A.M., followed by the taking of a picture.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Penniman.

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: There will be a meeting of the Committee on Style, Drafting and Arrangement at 9:30 A.M. on Tuesday.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements by committee chairmen, or any others?

There is one resolution, Resolution 26. The Clerk will read it.

READING CLERK: Resolution No. 26 by the Committee on Public Information, William B. Dulany, Chairman.

A Resolution to provide for an office of public information and a staff and offices to conclude the business of the Convention following adjournment sine die, and to preserve its files, records, transcripts, journals and histories.
